Weakness of Bolshevism

5. Stalin has not taken care of his most valuable asset -- his people; and the people have become afraid, disgusted and discouraged with their way of life and their government's policies and attitudes. As a result, the tremendous Bolshevik industrial and military machine is resting on a doubtful, unstable human mass which could be turned against its leaders.

What to Do

50X1-HUM

- 6. "The struggle against Bolshevism now must be carried on not only by preparing material weapons but by an immediate shift to an attack with moral influence on the subjugated peoples and by revealing to them the truth about Bolshevism. Without this shift from defense to attack in the cold war, the third world war between the peoples of the East and the West would be inevitable with terrible consequences of destruction and ruin.
- 7. "Immediate wide revelation of the truth about the nature of Bolshevism, information regarding the true aims of the democratic countries, discrediting of the small group of usurpers in the Tsk VKP (b) who have seized power, and giving of moral support to the people beyond the iron curtain' -- these measures would create a situation in which the Bolshevik dictators would not be able to arouse the masses of people for a struggle against the democratic countries. If an armed conflict should then burst out, it would inevitably and quickly change into a civil war in the East.
- 8. "The multi-national Russian people are the main core, the basic strength in Stalin's plan for seizing power. These people for the most part are patient and hardy, honest and generous, industrious and capable. In their historic past, the Russian people have many times heroically repelled the invasions of Mongols and Tartars in Europe. They have repeatedly risen to free Europe from dictators. Now it is these people who are being prepared to be a tyrant-obeying armed horde, capable of seizing Europe and all countries of the world.
- 9. "The Russian people need immediate moral help. They must know that the democratic peoples of Europe and America are not enemies but friends.
- 10. "The great free people of the USA could serve as an example of brotherly friendship in rendering moral support to the great Russian people.
- 11. "The struggle with moral means could be accomplished by:
 - "a. Making the UN a forum for discussing the following questions:
 - "(1) The existence of slave labor in numerous secret forced labor camps in the USSR.
 - "(2) The state of the armed forces in the USSR and the reasons for existence of such large armies, equipped with the latest armaments for offensive purposes; that they create a threat to security.
 - "(3) The systematic interference of government representatives of the USSR and of the international VKP (b) organization in the internal affairs of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Rumania, Hungary, and other countries.

"In case the representatives of the USSR refuse to give an exhaustive explanation regarding these questions and also refuse to allow representatives of the UN in the USSR and in the territory of the countries suffering from interference by the USSR, then the UN should consider adoption of measures, analogous to measures adopted by it in the case of Franco Spain, since the threat to peace at the present moment from the USSR is immeasurably greater than it was before from Spain.

- "b. Broadly announcing to all countries of the world that the sepressive measures adopted by the UN in regard to the USSR and the satellite states were adopted temporarily not against the enslaved peoples but against the governments, which are violators and dictators who have seized power with the aid of the international VKP (b) organization.
- "c. Broadly explaining by every means of propaganda:
 - "(1) The significance for the peoples of the world by bringing into life the Atlantic Charter of Freedoms, and also the aims and the problems of the UN in attaining the objective of the Charter.
 - "(2) The rights of man
 - *(3) The nature of the Marshall Plan
 - "(4) The life of people in the democratic countries, and, in particular, life in the USA
 - "(5) The actions, tendencies, tactics, and objectives of the international TsK (b) organization with its principal center in Moscow
 - "(6) Possible assistance to subjugated peoples in liquidating violence by the communist organizations
- *d. Partially invalidating the Yalta Agreement relating to extradition of Army deserters, refugees, and political emigrants; showing them all possible cooperation and all possible assistance in developing new democratic organizations in the USA, which would carry on the struggle against Bolshevism; also giving assistance in obtaining material aid to such existing democratic organizations as:
 - "(1) Peasant Union of the Enslaved Countries (Pres Mikolajczyk)
 - "(2) Common Cause (Pres Nataliya Peyn)
 - "(3) National Committee for Free Europe (Pres Crew)
 - "(4) Struggle for People's Freedom League (Pres Nikolayevskiy)
 - "(5) Other democratic organizations"

50X1-HUM 50X1-HUM

the USSR has an enormous apparatus for disseminating propaganda and otherwise controlling peoples throughout the world, and the the Soviets are generous in money expenditure for maintenance of this apparatus.

the US could lend the essential financial support for maintaining democratic organizations to fight Bolshevism.

50X1-HUM

In conclusion nonly with the assurance of a wide inflow of financial means to the social organizations could it be possible to break through the 'iron curtain' and give help to the enslaved peoples in their struggle against the dictators and to avert or considerably weaken the ripening new slaughter among the peoples. To conquer Bolshevism is only possible with the assistance of the enslaved peoples themselves and above all with the active participation of the multi-national Russian people."

Weakness of Bolshevism

5.	Stalin has not taken care of his most valuable asset his people; and the people have become afraid, disgusted and discouraged with their way of life and their government's policies and attitudes. As a result, the tremendous Bolshevik industrial and military machine is resting on a doubtful, unstable human mass which could be turned against its leaders.

What to Do	30/1-11010

- 6. "The struggle against Bolshevism now must be carried on not only by preparing material weapons but by an immediate shift to an attack with moral influence on the subjugated peoples and by revealing to them the truth about Bolshevism. Without this shift from defense to attack in the cold war, the third world war between the peoples of the East and the West would be inevitable with terrible consequences of destruction and ruin.
- 7. "Immediate wide revelation of the truth about the nature of Bolshevism, information regarding the true aims of the democratic countries, discrediting of the small group of usurpers in the Tsk VKP (b) who have seized power, and giving of moral support to the people beyond the iron curtain' -- these measures would create a situation in which the Bolshevik dictators would not be able to arouse the masses of people for a struggle against the democratic countries. If an armed conflict should then burst out, it would inevitably and quickly change into a civil war in the East.
- 8. "The multi-national Russian people are the main core, the basic strength in Stalin's plan for seizing power. These people for the most part are patient and hardy, honest and generous, industrious and capable. In their historic past, the Russian people have many times heroically repelled the invasions of Mongols and Tartars in Europe. They have repeatedly risen to free Europe from dictators. Now it is these people who are being prepared to be a tyrant-obeying armed horde, capable of seizing Europe and all countries of the world.
- 9. *The Russian people need immediate moral help. They must know that the democratic peoples of Europe and America are not enemies but friends.
- 10. "The great free people of the USA could serve as an example of brotherly friendship in rendering moral support to the great Russian people.
- 11. "The struggle with moral means could be accomplished by:
 - "a. Making the UN a forum for discussing the following questions:
 - "(1) The existence of slave labor in numerous secret forced labor camps in the USSR.
 - "(2) The state of the armed forces in the USSR and the reasons for existence of such large armies, equipped with the latest armaments for offensive purposes; that they create a threat to security.
 - "(3) The systematic interference of government representatives of the USSR and of the international VKP (b) organization in the internal affairs of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Rumania, Hungary, and other countries.

"In case the representatives of the USSR refuse to give an exhaustive explanation regarding these questions and also refuse to allow representatives of the UN in the USSR and in the territory of the countries suffering from interference by the USSR, then the UN should consider adoption of measures, analogous to measures adopted by it in the case of Franco Spain, since the threat to peace at the present moment from the USSR is immeasurably greater than it was before from Spain.

- "b. Broadly announcing to all countries of the world that the depressive measures adopted by the UN in regard to the USSR and the satellite states were adopted temporarily not against the enslaved peoples but against the governments, which are violators and dictators who have seized power with the aid of the international VKP (b) organization.
- "c. Broadly explaining by every means of propaganda:
 - "(1) The significance for the peoples of the world by bringing into life the Atlantic Charter of Freedoms, and also the aims and the problems of the UN in attaining the objective of the Charter.
 - *(2) The rights of man
 - *(3) The nature of the Marshall Plan
 - "(4) The life of people in the democratic countries, and, in particular, life in the USA
 - The actions, tendencies, tactics, and objectives of the international TsK (b) organization with its principal center in Moscow
 - *(6) Possible assistance to subjugated peoples in liquidating violence by the communist organizations
- *d. Partially invalidating the Yalta Agreement relating to extradition of Army deserters, refugees, and political emigrants; showing them all possible cooperation and all possible assistance in developing new democratic organizations in the USA, which would carry on the struggle against Bolshevism; also giving assistance in obtaining material aid to such existing democratic organizations as:
 - "(1) Peasant Union of the Enslaved Countries (Pres Mikolajczyk)
 - *(2) Common Cause (Pres Nataliya Peyn)
 - "(3) National Committee for Free Europe (Pres Crew)
 - *(4) Struggle for People's Freedom League (Pres Nikolayevskiy) 50X1-HUM
 - "(5) Other democratic organizations"

50X1-HUM

- the USSR has an enormous apparatus for disseminating propaganda and otherwise controlling peoples throughout the world, and the the Soviets are generous in money expenditure for maintenance of this apparatus.

 the US could lend the essential financial support for maintaining democratic organizations to fight Bolshevism.
- only with the assurance of a wide inflow of financ 50X1-HUM to the social organizations could it be possible to break through the 'iron curtain' and give help to the enslaved peoples in their struggle against the dictators and to avert or considerably weaken the ripening new slaughter among the peoples. To conquer Bolshevism is only possible with the assistance of the enslaved peoples themselves and above all with the active participation of the multi-national Russian people.
